R. Numb. 454

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, September 30 1703

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 4.

Frankfort, September 26.

THE following Relation of the Battle fought between Count Stirum and the French and Bavarians on the 21ſt has been made publick here; And agrees in Subſtance with a Letter written by Count Stirum to his Lady after his retreat to Nordlingen.

'The Count de Stirum having decamp'd with 'his Army from Haunſheim on the 19th of Septem- 'ber, either to paſs the Danube, to joyn the Prince 'of Baden, or to make a Diverſion towards Dona- 'wert, advanc'd that Night to Schwemmingen, 'where he was oblig'd to halt the day following to 'wait the coming up of his Artillery and his Pontons, 'which he had outmarch'd, and which were drawn 'by Horſes and Oxen belonging to the Peaſants. 'On the 21ſt at 4 in the Morning, his Spies gave 'him notice that the Elector of Bavaria and the 'Marſhal de Villars with their Army had paſs'd the 'Danube at Donawert the Night before, and were 'in full march to attack him. On this Information, 'he order'd his Troops, conſiſting of 25 Battallions 'and 45 Squadrons, to be drawn up in Order of 'Battle. The Enemies being advanc'd to a certain 'high Ground, 3 Guns were fir'd from Donawert, 'which were anſwer'd with 6 by the Marqueſs 'd'Uſſon who guarded the Intrenchments of Dillin- 'gen and Lauingen; being the Signal agreed on 'between him and the Elector of Bavaria and the 'Marſhal de Villars, for ſignifying that he was 'moving with his Troops to fall upon the Count de 'Stirum in conjunction with them: But Count Sti- 'rum reſolv'd to attack Monſieur d'Uſſon before the 'other Army came upon him, that he might not be 'ſurrounded by the Enemy; and order being given 'accordingly to General Palſi, he executed it with a 'Detachment of Horſe ſo ſucceſsfully, that he broke 'Monſieur d'Uſſon's Cavalry, conſiſting of 15 Squa- 'drons, and put his Infantry likewiſe, conſiſting of '18 Squadrons, to the Rout, which retir'd to Dil- 'lingen making but little reſiſtance. He drove 6 of 'the Enemies Squadrons into a Bog, where they al- 'moſt all periſh'd, hardly one Man being ſav'd; and 'tis reckon'd the French loſt in this firſt Attack 800 'Men and 20 Standards. Much about the ſame 'time the Elector of Bavaria charg'd Count Stirum 'with 30 Battallions and 35 Squadrons; the Impe- 'rial Cavalry after ſome reſiſtance retir'd behind the 'ſecond Line of their Army, where the Enemies 'were receiv'd with great Reſolution and Bravery. 'But Count Stirum perceiving himſelf almoſt hem'd 'in by ſo great a Number of Troops, judg'd it con- 'venient to retire under the Cannon of Nordlingen; 'which he did in ſo good Order, that the French 'notwithſtanding their Superiority durſt not purſue 'him. 'Tis computed that in this Action, which 'laſted 9 hours, about 1000 of the Imperialiſts were 'kill'd or wounded. But the Enemies loſs is much 'greater, and our Men (as was ſaid above) took 20 'Standards from them. But they took from us the 'greateſt part of our Baggage and Ammunitions, as 'alſo our Pontons and 30 Pieces of Cannon, moſt 'of them Field-pieces; which was owing to the 'Peaſants, who ran away with their Horſes that 'drew the Train, as ſoon as the Enemy appear'd.

From the Hague Gazette, dated October 1.

Vienna, Sept. 15. We have Advice from Hungary that a ſtrong Party of Raſcians and ſome German Troops, have attack'd 1500 Rebels near Guilla, of whom they kill'd 700, took many of them Priſoners, and diſpers'd the reſt, and afterwards recover'd the Town of Guilla out of the hands of the Rebels. The Emperor has ſent a Commiſſion to the Grand Palatin of Hungary to raiſe the Militia of that Country to oppoſe the Rebels. The Governour of Tranſilvania has ſignified, that he has 8000 Men ready to march againſt the Rebels.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 4.

Vienna, Sept. 19. The Advantage gain'd over the Rebels of Hungary near Guilla, is more conſiderable than was at firſt reported. Berezeni was kill'd in this Action, and Petrozi another of the chief Leaders of the Rebels was taken Priſoner. They have offer'd 14000 Crowns for his Ranſom, but that offer has been rejected. 'Tis reported that Prince Ragotzi has declar'd that he has taken Arms with no other Deſign than to recover his Eſtate which is confiſcated, and to obtain a Revocation of the Sentence of Death given againſt him. But this needs Confirmation.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Sept. 21.

Niſmes, Sept. 4. 500 of the Camiſars being got together near Veſenobre, the commanding Officer of the King's Troops that are quarter'd on that ſide, fell upon them with 90 Men, kill'd 12 of them at the 1ſt diſcharge and took 15 Priſoners; the reſt made off into the Woods with what haſte they could, without firing one ſhot at our Men. A Detachment of 30 Men of the Garriſon of Vic being convoying a Courier to Monſieur de Baſville's, was attack'd within half a League of that Place by 600 of the Camiſars; the Officer who commanded the Detachment, ſeeing them coming, poſted his Men ſo advantageouſly, that he had but 2 Grenadiers kill'd and a Lieutenant wounded. The Camiſars left 20 Men kill'd on the Spot, and fled away for fear of being cut off by other Troops that are quarter'd in that Neighbourhood. On the 28th of laſt Month, 500 Foot and 50 Horſe of the Camiſars, ravag'd the Lands and pillag'd the Houſes of the Ancient Catholicks at Nibante, but without killing any body. Yeſterday two of them were broken on the Wheel here, and the Head of a certain Gentleman was cut off in Effigie.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 2.

Montpellier, Sept. 7. The Camiſards continue to commit great Diſorders, and lately burnt 3 Churches in the Dioceſs of Uſez. On the 1ſt of this Month a Detachment of 80 Men, moſt of them Grenadiers of the Regiment of la Fare, having convoy'd the Baron de Sauve from St. Hipolite to Sauve, were attack'd in their return by a Party of Camiſars, with ſo much Vigour, that of the whole Detachment but one Man eſcap'd by feigning himſelf to be kill'd. The Marſhal de Montrevel enrag'd at this Action, is march'd from Alets to St. Hipolite, and threatens to burn 20 Villages that lye neareſt the Place where his Men were kill'd.

kill'd. His Troops are order'd to provide themſelves with Neceſſaries for encamping in the Field. And 'tis given out he is order'd to execute ſome important Project. The Miquelets who were poſted near Pont de Monver have, 'tis ſaid, fallen upon a Party of Camiſars and cut off 80 of them.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 4.

Alets, Sept. 9. On the 6th the Camiſars took away 2 Leaden Fats uſed in making Vitriol, within half a League of this Place; they weigh'd 1400 weight each, and would have ſerv'd to make 60000 Muſquet Balls. But the Marſhal de Montrevel having detach'd 100 Horſe and 300 Foot to follow them, they recover'd one of the Fats with part of the other, the Camiſars abandoning their Booty on notice given them by their Scouts of the Approach of this Detachment. However they carried off Lead enough to make 4400 Bullets. The Marſhal de Montrevel has cauſed a Houſe in the Country belonging to the Counteſs de Luſſan where the Camiſars uſed to harbour to be burnt.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Sept. 24.

Niſmes, Sept. 14. Some days ago 3 Officers of the Camiſars were ſeiz'd at St. Eſprit, and as they were conducted to Aletz, one of them ſnatch'd a Fuzil from one of the Soldiers who guarded them and kill'd him, but he himſelf was immediately ſhot dead by another of the Soldiers. The two others were carried to Alets, one had been a Captain in Holland the other a Lieutenant: The Captain was broken on the Wheel, but the Lieutenant is repriev'd till further Order from the King; for as he was led to the Scaffold he begg'd the Marſhal de Montrevel to ſpare his Life and he would make great Diſcoveries, upon which his Execution was reſpited: He has diſcover'd among other things, that 3 more of his Comrades are coming from Holland to put themſelves at the head of the Camiſars, to which end they were directed by the Miniſters of the States General to apply themſelves to one Monſieur Rochegude. Upon this Diſcovery of the Lieutenant's Monſieur Rochegude has been ſeiz'd and carried to St. Hipolite; there were found in his Houſe 500 Fuzils and a great number of other Arms. The Captain who was executed, died a Proteſtant, and was a Native of Beaucaire; the Lieutenant was born at Jouquet in this Country.

Paris, Sept. 24. 'Tis reported with great Aſſurance, that the Camiſars who grow daily more formidable, have lately defeated a Battallion of Foot and 50 Dragoons of the King's Troops, of whom but few eſcap'd to carry the News to the Marſhal de Montrevel.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 4.

Lorrain, Sept. 29. The Advices from France tell us, that a ſevere Edict againſt the Camiſars is in the Preſs; importing among other things, that every Man who ſhall be taken going from one Village to another without a Paſſport, ſhall be ſent to the Galleys; and every Woman who ſhall be taken in the like Caſe ſhall be impriſon'd; as alſo that all the Men, dwelling in ſuſpected Places, who are able to bear Arms ſhall be liſted.

Amſterdam, Oct. 5. The 3 Citizens of Amersfoort (who were kept under Confinement, when the reſt of the 10 who were excepted from the General Amneſty granted to the Factious Burghers of that Town were fined 500 Gulders apiece and diſcharg'd) were lately tried, and 2 of them, viz. Meſſieurs Van Houſen and Saal, were condemn'd to loſe their Heads; and the other, viz.
